

Ambassador Grace Tsitsi Mutandiro

Commissioner

Ambassador Mutandiro spent the greater part of her civil service career in the diplomatic service. She served as a Counsellor at the Embassies of Zimbabwe in France and South Africa respectively. She was Special Assistant to the Chief Secretary to the President and Cabinet and Director in that office from 1997 to 2003. She also served as Secretary of the Presidential Land Review Committee (the Utete Committee).

In 2004 she was appointed Ambassador to Austria with multiple accreditations to the Czech Republic and Slovakia and was also Zimbabwe's Permanent Representative to the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), the United Nations Organization on Crime and Drugs (UNODC), United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) and the Preparatory Commission to the Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty Organization (CTBTO).

In 2015 she was appointed Secretary for Lands and Rural Resettlement, and subsequently Secretary for Environment, Water and Climate from 2017 until 2018. Ambassador Mutandiro was appointed Public Service Commissioner in September 2018, a position she held until November 2020 when she was appointed Special Advisor to the Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Trade.

Ambassador Mutandiro holds a Bachelor of Administration degree and a Bachelor of Laws degree (LLB).
